F. B. McGuire, Esq.,

Dear Sir,

Robert E. Taylor,

Esq. informs me that by your kind offices we may secure for the Art Department of the College photographs of the pictures in the Corcoran Gallery in Washington. This would be an accession which we should very much prize, and should be extremely indebted to you for any service you may perform towards procuring them for us. If any formal application is necessary on my part, or if any expense is involved, will you be kind enough to inform me.

Very truly

Yours,

L. L. Caldwell.

Dear Sir.

You will please excuse the liberty I take in writing to you as I thought you could give me better information than any one else. I have an Old Picture has been in the family for many years Steel Plate 20 x 24 Dated London 1751 of Elysious and Archelous. the Mother of Archelous sends him to a Ladies Seminary disguised as a girl to keep him from going to the Wars. Elysious to find him out goes to this Seminary disguised as a Peddler of Famlets and Beads as ornaments for ladies and as the Ladies are examining the Beads Elysious takes hold of Archelous by the Arm Archelous draws a Dagger and is in the act of stabbing Elysious causing great consternation among the Ladies.
The white ground where the writing is went to cleaning some and then put the picture in a new frame it would make a handsome picture. Now I would like if it would not be giving you too much trouble to drop me a few lines telling me what you think it ought to be worth I am afflicted with the Rheumatism or I would call on you in person.

By so doing you will greatly Oblige

Yours Most Resp<sup>t</sup>

Dear Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt to day of a package of photographs representing works of art in the Corcoran Gallery sent by request of F. B. McGuire, Esq. for the benefit of the Art Collection in this College.

I wish to convey to the proper persons the thanks of myself & of the authorities of the College for this very welcome gift, and to yourself for selecting sending the photographs. We specially appreciate representations of our Americharacter of the goods) to permit the transportation in bond without examination here.

The invoice states that the goods are the work of an American artist, but we find no such certificate attached to the invoice as required by law and consequently could not enter the goods here free of duty except by giving bond to procure the necessary affi-

The best way to proceed under the circumstances, would be, as we have stated, to request the Secretary of the Treasury to instruct the collector of customs at this port to permit the transportation of the goods in bond without examination here, and which is often done, and would be fully warranted in view of the breakable character

Please advise us what steps you may take in the matter and oblige

Dear Sir:-

I write to ask if the Institution with which I am connected is entitled to receive the Photographs which I understand it to be the policy of the Cucuman Gallery to distribute among American Art Schools.

Our Institution is as you will see by enclosed circular a Museum and School of Industrial Art.

The Museum is at Memorial Hall in Fair-

Dear Sir

I have recently purchased a home near Lexington and would like to have the three paintings you were kind enough to let hang in the Corcoran gallery. I am glad to say that I will not be obliged to sell them as I at one time feared, but I am ever so much obliged to you for their exhibition in your gallery —
